

WELCOME TO THE MAINE LIGHTHOUSE MUSEUM

The Maine Lighthouse Museum would like to welcome your group to Rockland, Maine – halfway between Portland and Bar Harbor (Acadia National Park) in the beautiful Mid-Coast region. Many people know Rockland as “The Lobster Capital of the World,” however, this quintessential New England harbor town is home to a burgeoning collection of world-class museums, galleries, shops, and restaurants.

Who we are: Maine Lighthouse Museum houses the nation’s largest and most significant collection of lighthouse artifacts and lenses in the country, as well as a landmark collection of United States Coast Guard memorabilia. Our gift shop offers one of the most interesting selections of merchandise representing lighthouses, lobsters, and other fun Maine icons.

Where we are located: We are seated at the head of Main Street, alongside the Chamber of Commerce and overlooking Rockland Harbor. The building is handicap accessible and has restroom facilities. We are within walking distance of Rockland’s other attractions and restaurants. Free and convenient public parking is adjacent to our building...even for buses!

What we charge for groups: $4.00 per person for groups of 20 or more. This price includes the option to have a tour guide show your group through the museum. Of course, you may elect to have a self-guided experience. Simply specify if you would like a guide when making a reservation. Children 11 years old and younger are free. Two people per group are allowed free admission (the tour leader and bus driver). Our hours of operation: Memorial Day – Columbus Day Mondays – Fridays 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM Saturdays and Sundays 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM And by appointment - just give us a call!

How to reserve a visit: ● You can call us, and we can make your group’s reservation over the phone. ● You can email a tour request via our website: www.maineighthousemuseum.org ● We are flexible with our payment options (we accept Visa or MasterCard and checks). ● Advance payment is not necessary, but it is greatly appreciated to expedite your experience on the day of the visit. We usually recommend that groups plan to spend about an hour at the Maine Lighthouse Museum. This allows time to gather your group, use the restroom, tour the Museum, and visit the gift shop.
